Before Hon. Judge Ingraham.

July 17.—Capine us. Richardson.—In this case the appellant served notice of appeal from a judgment in the Batrict Court, but omitted to state the grounds of appeal Instrict Court, but omitted to state the grounds of appeal in his notice. It is, of course, defective, and the appeal should be dismissed, unless permission to amend is given. I am satisfied that the notice, in this case, was given in good faith, and that the notice, in this case, was given in good faith, and that the error occurred through mistake, and can see no reason why the amendment should not be allowed, and such leave should be granted in this case.

Marki w. Peciles.—This case came up on the report of referee, and it was hold that the plaintiff is not entitled telestered from the date at which the balance is struck. He had a right to call the defendant to account, and then he would have been entitled to interest. Judgment accordingly.

Scrofula, Ulcers, Rheumatism, Eruptions, Ac., cured without fail, by Dr. HEINE, 333 Broome street.
I consider it my duty towards Dr. Heine and the public to make known to safferers of diseases where to be cured. I tried Professor Parker, James R. Wood, Dr. Kimbark, to no purpose. It was in the newspapers where I saw Dr. Heine's mame, and through the same channel I am happy to state that Dr. Heine has perfectly oured me of the most dreadful and greatest miscries. My whole person was covered with ulcers—half my tongue and lips caten off. I shall be pleased to Impart to sufferers all particulars, by calling at my residence, Mrs. Mangart Drank.
